S. McChord: One must climb out of the valley before he can get over the mountain.

L. McCusker: The miracle is that life continues, the sorrow is that we do not--make the best of it.

J. McGrath: Love your neighbor.

C. McHugh: Do not squander time, that is the stuff life is made of.

P. McLaughlin: Humble pie is always hard to swallow with your pride.

J. McNulty: Let's not think of it as an end, think of it as a new beginning.

J. Melikian: A thought, a smile, is how friendship begins . . . a memory is how it lasts.

A. Monaco: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

Joanne McNulty

George Melikian

Kenneth Miller

Ann Monaco

C. Mooney: I want to shout, but I can't hardly speak!

M. Moore: Those who bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves.

G. Morse: Happy we are met, happy we have been, happy may we part and happy meet again.

T. Ostheimer: I'd like to know what this whole show is all about before it's out.

M. Packard: What you are is God's gift to you, what you become is your gift to God.

R. Palmer: I feel nothing I could say can sum up my experiences of the past 12 years.

A. Palmgren: Time, the subtle thief of youth.

A. Pare: Dreams are treasures of yesterday that cannot be stolen, only lost. Hold on to them with all your might; and you've got it made!

L. Payne: In the past I've been checkin' out all the new words used by all of you clones and I have dynamite words of supergroovalisticprosifunkstication!

Robert Prouty

David Prudden

A. Randall: Keep on truckin'.

D. Ray: Well the first days are the hardest days, don't you worry any more, 'cause when life looks like easy street, there is danger at your door.

J. Reardon: Take my hand and come with me, for we've many miles to go and the journey's always sweeter when shared by two.

L. Reed: Always love and you will be loved.

P. Reed: If you love something, let it go, if it comes back, it's yours, if not, then it never was.

J. Rubbo: I live my life from day to day, and hope that each is different and teaches me something of the life I'm living.

E. Rudenauer: The past is gone forever, the future is mine to make what I want of any expectations.

M. Ryan: If opportunity doesn't bother to knock at your door, take it easy, for by waiting for it you've already let your life slip by.

N. Sabbag: There can be no rainbow without the rain.

J. Schwob: Don't give up until you drink from the silver cup and ride that highway in the sky.

J. Ulfelder: When ideas are narrow, they become the bars by which a man is imprisoned.

S. Vafides: Maybe I'm a fool 'cause I look for the light through the pouring rain.

L. Valentino: Nobody ever had the rainbow until they had the rain.

M. Vento: Why grieve because your beautiful dreams have not come true; neither have your nightmares.
